Breakfast Lions with October Birthdays

5 - Don Levac

8 - Chuck Floy

From Eyeglass Chairman Dave Salmen and Right Hand Man Dick Bracewell

Last year a total of 2,648 eyeglasses and 1,161 cases were shipped to: Honduras (Knights of Columbus), China and Africa (Dr. Clem). Of those collected, 1,922 glasses and 861 cases were from the Breakfast Lions; 1134 of the glasses and 300 cases were given to us by the Camden Noon Lion's club. Thanks to all who helped with this worthwhile clause!!!

GOLF SCRAMBLE

What a great tournament!!

With wonderful weather, 88 golfers playing and the hard work and cooperation of many it turned out to be one of the very best village tournaments. Credit and thanks for this successful tournament go to our golf committee: Chairman Lion Chuck Abinante and Lions' Don Levac, Dick Olsen, Don Fisher, Bob Olsen, Al Becker, Hal Goss and Pat McCullough; also to all of the volunteers from the club, POA golf course personnel, the many sponsors, all those who donated Tournament Drawing prizes and some great food provided by Ramona's Kitchen.

HELP NEEDED - GET INVOLVED

As outlined in our last meeting, by our 2nd VP, Lion Ken Wilson, our Board of director's decided it was necessary to have back ups for Chairmen of Committees. Secretary, Lion Jim Podawitz and Treasurer, Lion Hal Goss outlined their duties. Duties of other committees will be covered today. Positions available are: Assistant Secretary, Assistant Treasurer, Chairman Historian, Co-Chairman Historian, Chairman Transportation, Co-Chairman Transportation and Co-Chairman Constitution/ By-Laws.
